Flow of events to use-case "Log in"

Short description

This event is called, when user wants to log in the system.

Main events flow

1. Open website.
2. Click button "Log in".
3. Fill all needed fields.
4. Click "Submit" button.

Post conditions

No.

Flow of events to use-case "Register"

Short description

This event is called, when user wants to register in the system.

Main events flow

1. Open website.
2. Click button "Register".
3. Fill all needed fields.
4. Click "Submit" button.

Post conditions

New user added to database.

Flow of events to use-case "Add ad"

Short description

This event is called, when user wants to add new ad in the system.

Main events flow

1. Click button "My Profile" and open profile.
2. Click button "Create ad".
3. Fill all fields and click "Add".

Post conditions

New ad added to the database.

Flow of events to use-case "Edit ad"

Short description

This event is called, when user wants to edit some ad.

Main events flow

1. Click button "My Profile" and open profile.
2. Choose needed ad and open it.
3. Click button "Edit ad".
4. Edit needed fields and click "Confirm".

Post conditions

Some ad updated in the database.

Flow of events to use-case "Delete ad"

Short description

This event is called, when user wants to delete some ad.

Main events flow

1. Click button "My Profile" and open profile.
2. Choose needed ad and open it.
3. Click button "Delete ad".
4. Confirm your action.

Post conditions

Some ad deleted from the database.

Flow of events to use-case "Delete user's ad"

Short description

This event is called, when admin wants to delete any user's ad.

Main events flow

1. Open needed user's profile.
2. Choose needed ad and open it.
3. Click button "Delete ad".
4. Confirm your action.

Post conditions

Some ad deleted from the database.